

CHART on HOW TO USE reserve players (R), playdowns (D) and trial players (T) for 2014

A7.a.iii. RESERVE (A-AA): a registered regional competitive player may be called to play an unlimited number of games with another team from the same club of higher or equal category to his own category of affiliation and of higher or equal calibre/class to his class of affiliation (FSQ r.f. annexe). An unlimited number of reserve players may be used at any one game paying attention not to exceed the maximum of 4 muted players per game (C4.b).

A7.a.iv. RESERVE (L): a non-muted registered regional recreational player ("L") may be called up as a reserve for 7 Youth League games only (all teams combined). No muted recreational player can be used as a reserve.

A7.a.vi. PLAYDOWN (AAA to AA) (FSQ art. 35.9) : a player who has received permission to take part in a game with a team of his club of a lower class/caliber than that assigned.

A7.b.i.1. TRIAL PLAYER: the use of a trial player (with permission, a player taking part in a game of higher category, higher caliber/class or higher division than that assigned), as prescribed by the FSQ (r.f. 28.7), is limited to 3 games per team maximum.
